

Proclamation

by

Ernie Fletcher
Governor

of the

Commonwealth of Kentucky

To All To Whom These Presents Shall Come:

WHEREAS, Alpha Phi Omega-the nation's largest service fraternity-will participate in National Service Week, an event the Fraternity has sponsored annually since 1979; and

WHEREAS, This year's theme for National Service Week is "Making Safer Homes," and Alpha Phi Omega chapters, along with other campus and community organizations, will be working to develop projects that will promote the health, safety, and security of families; and

WHEREAS, Alpha Phi Omega members seek to introduce volunteerism to individuals who might not otherwise become involved in paying tribute to those who gave so much in the past to make our lives better today; and

WHEREAS, Alpha Phi Omega chapters at Centre College, Northern Kentucky University, the University of Kentucky, and the University of Louisville will work to promote these ideals and render service to their communities;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, ERNIE FLETCHER, Governor of the Commonwealth of Kentucky, do hereby proclaim November 6-12, 2005, as in Kentucky, and wish all Alpha Phi Omega members a very successful week of service to their campuses, their community, and to the nation.

NATIONAL SERVICE WEEK

DONE AT THE CAPITOL, in the City of Frankfort this 31st day of October, in the year of Our Lord Two Thousand Five and in the 214th year of the Commonwealth.
